Oak Lawn Marketing launches Augmented Reality (AR) app for JAANA Rhythms

Oak Lawn Marketing's (OLM) exercise brand, exabody, is pleased to announce that in line with the launch of sales of its new exercise DVD JAANA Rhythms (April 19), it is also offering a free AR (Augmented Reality) app of JAANA Rhythms for use on Android™ Smartphones from April 22.

After users download the app, they can enjoy an AR video by scanning the JAANA Rhythms logo with their Android™ Smartphone. After the video finishes it automatically links to "kubireru.jp" which spotlights JAANA Rhythms celebrity testimonial popular comedian Ms. Kuwabata.

Part of the attraction of AR technology is that it makes it possible to share a wider variety of information with users than typical media formats. Customers may also learn more about JAANA Rhythms through the kubireru.jp site.

OLM will continue to strive to provide contents that satisfy individual customer's needs and to support lifestyle enrichment for each and every customer.
