Co-sponsor for “Romeo and Juliet” by Nameless Theater
 Inviting university students in Aichi to the play as educational support

Oak Lawn Marketing, Inc. (HQ: Higashi-ku, Nagoya President & CEO: Harry A. Hill, Operations: three shopping brands “Shop Japan”, “Hill’s Collection”, and “exabody”) will co-sponsor the theater play, “Romeo and Juliet” that is to be performed at Aichi Arts Center from May 24th 2013 until May 26th 2013.

The play “Romeo and Juliet” will be performed all in English by Nameless Theater in Nagoya (Parent company: Nameless Media and Productions).

OLM decided to co-sponsor this performance in agreement with the mission of Nameless Theater, “to provide the opportunity for both foreign and Japanese audiences to experience quality English language theater”, and invite 66 university students in Aichi who learn English as a part of social action and educational support for local community.

OLM continuously strives to fulfill our vision of “Profit Centric Tree (profit circulation for all stakeholders)”, and activate the profit circulation between all stakeholders through various social activities to maintain the company's vision and CSR policy of enriching lifestyles worldwide.

OLM’s president & CEO, Harry A. Hill will also appear on stage as a role of Escalus.
